

Thrusting skyward the ham

snow on solons

coffee will or won't courthouse where dicks hang out

Washington Post - 18 hours ago

By Kathleen Doheny. THURSDAY, March 1 (HealthDay News) -- Having just under a glass of wine a day cuts men's risk of dying from cardiovascular problems and all other causes and may help them live years longer, Dutch researchers report.

Drinking a little wine linked to men's longer life Reuters.uk